

Baseball, Golf, Tennis, Horse Racing

KETCHEL AND PAPKE ARE IN CALIFORNIA

Notwithstanding, Some Sporting Writers Personally Interview Fighters Here.

MYSTERIOUS M'FADDEN GETS GLORY AND MONEY

Leaves Old Cap and Sweater to Fred Wey to Be Remembered By.

The following telegram was received Monday night from the Salt Lake Tribune's special correspondent in Los Angeles: "Ketchel here; going 'Prisco' end of week. Papke, expected soon to start East."

In contradiction to the above special wire some of the Salt Lake sporting writers had an interview with Ketchel and Papke in this city and quote the fighters in several instances as lengthy write-ups. The story announcing the arrival of the men here goes on to say that Papke shows but little effects of his "bloody" mill with the Montana cowboy, but admits that his ribs and body are bruised. The story goes on further to say that Ketchel attributes his defeat to the wallop Papke slipped him in the first round, and that Ketchel does not hold any ill-feelings against the new champion. Papke, the best man in the world at his weight, has little to say and appears an unassuming but pleasant fellow. Ketchel admits that he was over-confident. He is of the Western type, afraid of no one and not to the extreme.

Did you ever hear George "Elbows" McFadden? Well, if you didn't call on the night clerk at the Wilson hotel and tell him that you are McFadden's friend, and so what happens. This same McFadden dropped into the hotel as unaccompanied as a New York millionaire last Friday night, pulled the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

MINOR HEIR FAILS TO BREAK RECORD

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Although Minor Heir, the famous pacer, who reeled off a mile in 2:13 in Milwaukee last week, failed to equal that record, his plucky race against time, and against a strong breeze, making 2:15, was the star event of the first day of the Grand Circuit meet at the State fair grounds here today.

One of the most popular attractions of the day was the running race, a five-eighths of a mile, for two-year-olds and upward, for a purse of $200, with eight starters. Rolly Polly won a procession, with a time of 2:15. The Harvester, winner of the colt event, had never started in a race before. He now holds the world's record for the fastest heat and fastest two heats ever trotted upon a first appearance, and also the stallion record under these conditions.

The Kanoe No. three-year-olds, 2:25 class, trotting, two in three, purse $1000.—The Harvester won two straight heats, in 2:10, 2:11. Electric Todd, The Laird, Thistle-down, Sealem and Silver Baron also started.

The Onondaga, 2:07 class, pacing, three in five, purse $2000.—Copa de Oro won three straight heats, in 2:04; 2:04; 2:05. Terry B. Major Mallow, Auto, Hal R. and Judea also started.

2:12 class, trotting, three in five, purse $1000.—Nancy Royce won three straight heats, in 2:12; 2:10; 2:11. Ceres, Marvella and Murray M. also started.

Grand special, to beat 2:01, pacing.—Minor Heir lost, Time 2:03 seconds; 1:30, 2:01.

MANAGER STOUT IS WORKING ON SCHEDULE

Manager Stout of the High School football team has arranged a match game with the Spokane school, to be played in Washington on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day. When the news was spread at the high school that a game had been arranged with outside team, enthusiasm ran high and the members of the football squad put in several extra kicks to finish up the day's work.

Stout is working hard to frame up his football schedule. On September 26 the team will go to Logan to play the Grizzlies. On October 10 a game will be played with the University second team. Stout has also offered games to Butte, East Denver, Boise academy and Pocatello high school. He also expects to add to the list two games with the Ogden high school, two with All Hollows college, one with the Granite team, and a practice game with the University first team.

Tribune Want Ads. Bell phone 5201. Ind. phone 360-348.

MAJOR LEAGUES

BASEBALL RACES GETTING EXCITING

Crucial Series Will Begin Friday, When New York Meets Pittsburgh.

Not in many years have the pennant races in both the National and American leagues been so close and exciting at this late stage of the season. New York won the only game participated in by any of the three leaders in the National league race Monday, gaining three points in percentage, and this morning led with an advantage of 21 points over Chicago, in second place. Pittsburgh, three points behind Chicago, today opens a series in Philadelphia, while the Chicago team goes to Boston and St. Louis goes to New York in the crucial series of the week will begin Friday, when Pittsburgh meets New York at the polo grounds, while Chicago moves to Philadelphia.

The four-cornered race in the American league is closer than ever as the result of yesterday's game. Only 20 points separate Detroit, in first position, from St. Louis in fourth place. Victories by Cleveland and St. Louis yesterday over Chicago and Detroit respectively had the effect of bunching the quartette of first division clubs closely enough to make the decisive shakeup possible as the result of two or three days' playing.

In contradiction to the above special wire some of the Salt Lake sporting writers had an interview with Ketchel and Papke in this city and quote the fighters in several instances as lengthy write-ups. The story announcing the arrival of the men here goes on to say that Papke shows but little effects of his "bloody" mill with the Montana cowboy, but admits that his ribs and body are bruised. The story goes on further to say that Ketchel attributes his defeat to the wallop Papke slipped him in the first round, and that Ketchel does not hold any ill-feelings against the new champion. Papke, the best man in the world at his weight, has little to say and appears an unassuming but pleasant fellow. Ketchel admits that he was over-confident. He is of the Western type, afraid of no one and not to the extreme.

Did you ever hear George "Elbows" McFadden? Well, if you didn't call on the night clerk at the Wilson hotel and tell him that you are McFadden's friend, and so what happens. This same McFadden dropped into the hotel as unaccompanied as a New York millionaire last Friday night, pulled the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

A box party was arranged and McFadden, alias Papke, together with several other men, went to the Orpheum theater Saturday night.

It was soon noticed about the theater that Billy Papke was there, and the scenes on the stage became of little interest to the audience, the people being anxious to get a glimpse of the ring hero. On Sunday night, the register over and signed the above name, at the same time requesting one of the best rooms in the house. Confidently, Mr. McFadden told the clerk that he was Billy Papke, but that he was so tired of these prying newspaper men that he didn't want to be interviewed. This same McFadden, who was supposed to be a champion, and new middleweight champion of the world, did not take the clerk long to confide in him, and he was given a room in the world, and the news spread like wildfire.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York 82 46 641
Pittsburgh 82 46 641
Philadelphia 82 46 641
Cincinnati 82 46 641
Boston 82 46 641
Brooklyn 82 46 641
St. Louis 82 46 641

GIANTS WIN EXCITING GAME

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A home run by Jordan with two men on bases gave the Brooklyn a lead of three runs in the first inning today, but thereafter Wiltsie held them safe, although it required three fast double plays to pull him out toward the end. Tucker pitched well up to the sixth inning, when he hit two men and Seymour got a double. Pastorius then took his place. New York tied the score in the eighth on a pass to Herzog, a steal and Seymour's single, and won it in the tenth, when Herzog was hit by a pitched ball. Brooklyn won the crucial series of the week with a 2-1 victory over New York in a week from Brooklyn and was the final game of the season. New York at the polo grounds, while Chicago moves to Philadelphia.

Brooklyn New York 4 5 1
Batteries—Rucker, Pastorius and Dunn; Wiltsie and Pastorius. Umpires—Johnstone and Klein.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—Errors by the home team helped Boston to win today's game, the deciding run being made in the ninth inning on a single by Sweeney and a wild throw and a wild pitch by Moran. R.H.E. Boston 4 5 1 Philadelphia 4 5 1

Batteries—Chappelle and Bowerman; McQuillen, Moran and Doolin. Umpire—Emmie.

WESTERN LEAGUE

SIoux CITY WINS THE WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

SIoux CITY, Sept. 14.—Manager Holmes walked to the plate in the third inning today and hit a home run over the centerfield fence, winning the last game of the season and the Western pennant for 1908. That run proved sufficient for the decisive shakeup possible as the result of two or three days' playing.

Sioux City 8 15 0
Omaha 6 3 3
Batteries—Freeman and Shea; Hollenbeck, Rhoades and Goding.

Twelve-Inning Tie. LINCOLN, Sept. 14.—The Lincoln and Pueblo clubs terminated the Western league season today, the season being practically suspended in Sioux City during the game, most of the stores closing at 2 o'clock. Had today's game gone to Omaha the race for the pennant would have been a tie between the two teams.

Sioux City 8 15 0
Omaha 6 3 3
Batteries—Freeman and Shea; Hollenbeck, Rhoades and Goding.

Denver Wins Last Game. DENVER, Sept. 14.—Des Moines lost the last game of the season today, Denver defeating them by 4 to 0. R.H.E. Des Moines 0 7 4 Denver 4 0 0

Batteries—Whitburn, Heckinger, Olmstead and McDonough.

Entries for Jamestown. JAMESTOWN, Sept. 14.—Following are the entries for Tuesday's races at Jamestown.

First race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Thiogenian, 105; Belle of the Tribe, 105; Mr. Magin, 105; Ed Shuster, 105; Bessie, 105; Cully, 105; Hazel, 105; Anna Blue, 105; Hazel May, 105; Donatation, 112; Homonia, 112; Golden Hopes, 112.

Second race, mile, selling—Charlatan, 111; Burpides, 111; Fancy Bird, 111; Perry, 108; Comic Opera, 108; Azure, 108; Bessie, 108; Constanter, 108; Lenora G., 102; Sempier Vera, 95; Miss Vigilante, 95; Flareney, 95; Helen Holland, 95; Lora, 105; Belle Mina, 105; Besterling, 102; Evelyn S., 85.

Third race, mile and one-sixteenth, handicap—Quagga, 112; Fancy Bird, 108; Rio Grande, 105; Laughing Eyes, 106; Besterling, 102; Evelyn S., 85.

Fourth race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Javanese, 116; Robin Hood, 113; Laura, 105; Belle Mina, 105; Besterling, 102; Evelyn S., 85.

Fifth race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Meadow Breeze, 116; Tom McFee, 105; Bessie, 105; Constanter, 105; Wabash Queen, 113; Mexican Silver, 112; Alomar, 110; Bergamo, 107; Lady Mira, 107; Alloy, 107; Blingen, 107; Belford, 107.

Entries for Anaconda. ANACONDA, Sept. 14.—The entries for Tuesday's races at Anaconda are as follows.

First race, nine-sixteenths of a mile, selling—Mossback, 97; Dollar Chaser, 97; Joe Young, 97; Diamond Nose, 100; Jewel, 102; Bill Bagwell, 102; Helen Atack, 102; Maud S., 102; Wheatstone, 102; Flying Wing, 102; Charles Egan, 102; Helene, 102.

Second race, five-eighths of a mile, selling—Mabel Fountain, 97; Morea, 102; Yolo, 102; R. A. McCurdy, 102; Falias, 102; Cavallena, 102; Thurio, 102; Sir Barry, 102; Semporelle, 102; Polyval, 105.

Third race, five-eighths of a mile, selling—Nancy W., 102; F. E. Shaw, 102; Mina Baker, 102; Brush Up, 102; Scorchier, 102; Resdan, 102; Euxy, 102; Springleaf, 102; Duke of Orleans, 102; Joe Woolan, 102; Eudora, 102; Canopus H., 102.

Fourth race, eleven-sixteenths of a mile, selling—Calendar, 102; Goldena, 102; Jack O' Lantern, 102; Willie Gregg, 102; Jerald, 102; Contingent, 102; Kuropatkin, 102; Queen Caroline, 102.

Fifth race, seven-eighths of a mile, selling—Reene W., 98; Mrs. Neugent, 98; Spalding, 102; Hi Caul Cap, 104; Sam Barber, 104; Salmir, 104; Redmont, 104; Elapa, 104; Mendon, 104; Vinton, 104.